

With its riverside location, Palace Wharf is also conveniently close to a number of transport links including Hammersmith Overground and Underground Station, Barons Court, Putney Bridge and Fulham Broadway Underground Stations, along with several regular and varied bus services which further improve accessibility.

Palace Wharf was built in 1907, replacing a malt house. An extension facing Rainville Road was added in 1933. For many years the wharf was the 'Rathbone Works' of the Rathbone family, who were prominent in the area. The wharf was built on the site of the old 'Rathbone Works' of the Rathbone family, who were prominent in the area.
